Outreach to Young Artists

From 59th and 9th
The Pastoral Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ –

Thank you for your participation in the Raising the Roof Book Drive. The drive concluded on Monday, June 14th. We received nearly 20,000 books and hundreds of CD's and DVD's. This was one of several smaller fundraisers that we will be sponsoring to help with the repair of the church roof. The total cost of the project will be around $3.5 million. Construction will be continuing throughout this year and most of next year.

The first official day of summer arrives with the summer solstice on Monday, June 21st. As we all prepare for vacations, long weekends, and a slower pace in our lives, I invite you to check out some recommended spiritual reading at the Welcome Center – Bookstore. To start off with, we recommend Jim Martin's newest book (which was released here at Saint Paul's last April), The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything. Fr. Jim will be speaking here on one of our parish feast days, Saints Peter & Paul on June 29th. We'll have more recommendations throughout the summer.

Also, I wanted to remind you about our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) process. Fr. Bob Collins is the coordinator. This process is intended for those adults who are not baptized or who were baptized in another Christian tradition and who are interested in becoming Catholic. If in your conversations with others around the barbecue, at work, or with other friends you meet others who are interested in becoming Catholic, please let them know about this wonderful process of exploring Catholicism. Fr. Bob can be reached at (212) 265 3495 ext. 339 or by e-mail: robert.collins@stpaultheapostle.org.

Finally, we ask God's Blessing upon all fathers, living and deceased, this weekend in celebration of Father's Day. Happy Father's Day!

Peace – Fr. Gil

Estimados Hermanas y Hermanos en Cristo –

Gracias por su participación en recogiendo libros para apoyar la renovación del techo de la iglesia. Recibimos a casi 20,000 mil libros.

La temporada del verano comienza el lunes. Durante el verano encontramos el tiempo ordinario en la iglesia. Domingo tras domingo seguimos celebrando el Misterio pascual de la vida, muerte y resurrección de Cristo, recordando los acontecimientos como comunidad cristiana y dándoles sentido, especialmente en el Evangelio de san Lucas. En los evangelios se habla de la vida y el ministerio de Jesús y del discipulado. Las lecturas y la vida sacramental nos alimentan y fortalecen aumentando nuestro compromiso bautismal de ir y dar a conocer la buena nueva del reino de Dios. Durante estos domingos de verano, la tentación es pensar que "ordinario" significa "común y corriente" pero tengamos en cuenta la solemnidad de la Resurrección, lo cual no es un evento ordinario pero el punto central de nuestra vida Cristiana.

El Evangelio de hoy presenta la pregunta de Jesús: "¿Quién dices tú que soy Yo?" Podemos reflexionar sobre cómo hemos evangelizado nosotros, qué decimos de Jesús y qué hacemos para atraer a la gente y ayudarlos a escoger el buen sendero. ¿Les hemos proclamado que la cruz de Cristo la encontrarán en sus vidas? Preguntémonos si nuestra vida da testimonio de que no cargamos solos nuestra cruz.

También celebramos hoy una parte de nuestra fe – el día de los Padres. Como Dios es padre para nosotros sabemos que los padres en nuestra vidas son una señal de la presencia de Dios. Felia Día de los Padres.

Paz – Padre Gil

Did You Know?...Ask Fr. Ron

After 10 years as Associate Pastor at what we Paulists affectionately call our "Mother Church," St. Paul the Apostle Parish in New York, I have been appointed Pastor of Immaculate Conception parish, Knoxville, Tennessee.

The city of Knoxville was established in 1794. By the mid-19th-century, railroad construction had brought numerous Catholic immigrants to East Tennessee and, in particular, to Knoxville which had become a hub for the construction. Accordingly in 1855, the first Roman Catholic parish in Knoxville was established, under the patronage of the Immaculate Conception. (That ancient doctrine had recently been dogmatically defined by Blessed Pope Pius IX in 1854). The small original church, which had survived undamaged through the Civil War, was eventually replaced by the present Victorian Gothic structure, dedicated September 19, 1886. In 1973, the Paulist Fathers (who had had an earlier history of mission activities in Tennessee) were invited to Knoxville to serve both the University of Tennessee Catholic community and at Immaculate Conception Church. In 1988, the Diocese of Knoxville was created out of what had been the eastern Tennessee counties of the diocese of Nashville. Immaculate Conception is now a thriving, multi-cultural Catholic parish in that new Diocese of Knoxville.

I plan to visit Knoxville for several days at the end of June, prior to my moving there later in July.

Please remember in prayer the following Paulist Fathers, the anniversary (day/year) of whose death is this week (denotes served at St. Paul's): Peter J. Moran (6/21/1941), John F. Carvlin (6/21/1979), John E. Weber (6/21/1984), Charles S. White* (6/21/2001), Edwin B. Kron* (6/22/1990), Mark J. Hettel* (6/24/1987), Edward D. Maher (6/24/2005), James F. McLean (6/26/03)
