

Dear Friends in Christ –

I was honored to be at the Ordination of Arnaud Mougin and 11 other new priests at the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris on Saturday, June 30th. Arnaud served here briefly at Christmas 2010 and during Lent, 2011 as a parish intern. It was a great experience. The celebration began with a Mass on Friday evening at Saint Severen. The mass was an opportunity for the young adults of the Archdiocese to gather with the ordinandi in prayer and thanksgiving.

You may see the ordinations on the web at www.youtube.com/watch?v=RgFk7uVhq8o.

I was inspired by the setting of the 850 year old Notre Dame, the music, and most of all by the faith of the new priests and their families and friends. My trip was short – four days of masses and prayers services and my French is still not very good!

I wanted to share with you an example of great faith.

Kathleen McGrath whose funeral we celebrated last Thursday evening. Kathleen McGrath (nee Brennan), born 1927 in Wexford, Ireland, died on July 5th at home peacefully surrounded by her loving family and friends. She is survived by her beloved daughter Catherine and son-in-law and a large extended family.

Kathleen was a woman of great faith. A longtime parishioner, Kathleen was one of the first volunteers for Momentum in the early days of the AIDS epidemic, ministering to those living with AIDS and educating the parish. She devoted herself to the poor and the homeless with dedication and compassion in her work coordinating the weekly soup kitchen, in her tireless volunteering at the Homeless Banquet and by devoting herself to many, many nights in the homeless shelter. A daily participant at Mass, she served for many years as a Eucharistic Minister and as a sponsor in the RCIA. Kathleen loved classical music, American history and all things Irish. She was well-read, never lacked a pointed opinion or a good story, and was a strong advocate of women's rights. She lived her baptismal priesthood in ways that are examples to me and to so many.

Peace – Father Gil

SUMMER READING 2012

*All books are available in the Church Bookstore*

Along the Way and The Way, two labors of love brought to life by Martin Sheen and his real life son, Emilio Estevez, are now available in the Bookstore.

The Way is a powerful story about the challenges we face while navigating this ever-changing and complicated world. Martin Sheen plays Tom, who comes to St. Jean Pied de Port, France to collect the remains of his son, killed in a storm while walking the Camino de Santiago. Rather than return home, Tom decides to embark on the pilgrimage to honor his son's desire to finish the journey.

In Along the Way, these two men recount their lives as father and son. In alternating chapters—and in voices that are as eloquent as they are different—they tell stories spanning more than fifty years of family history, and reflect on their journeys into two different kinds of faith.

Also available are our Roman Catholic Church book selections for the summer:

The Pope and I by Jerzy Kluger

Lives of the Popes by Richard P. McBrien

Absolute Monarchs by John Julius Norwich

The Cardinals by Michael Walsh

CRS Guiding Principles

Catholic Relief Services approaches emergency relief and long-term development holistically, ensuring that all people, especially the poorest and most vulnerable, are able to participate in the very fullness of life: Emergencies - In areas devastated by natural disasters and wars, CRS is often among the first on the ground providing water, food, shelter, and protection; Hunger - Millions worldwide are unable to meet their most basic, daily needs. CRS takes a multipronged approach to combat chronic hunger and poverty; Education - Access to education for all, particularly girls and women, as well as improved quality of education are key components of CRS' work around the world; Health - CRS establishes community-based health care systems that give people the tools they need to manage their own health needs; Peace - Conflict resolution, education and prevention are integral to our work of development and emergency recovery; Helping at Home - Here at home, we work to help American Catholics put their faith into action, encouraging them to advocate for changes that uproot the unjust structures in this country.

It cannot be too deeply and firmly impressed on the mind that the Church is actuated by the instinct of the Holy Spirit, and to discern clearly its action, and to co-operate with it effectually, is the highest employment of our faculties, and at the same time the primary source of the greatest good to society.

La Oficina del Fiscal de Nueva York tiene el propósito de proteger inmigrantes de estos crímenes; independiente de su status migratorio.
