Hurricane Sandy Relief Effort

Today you received an email from us outlining the ways in which we, as a community, can help all those affected by Hurricane Sandy. We strongly encourage you to read it and help our fellow New Yorkers. There are links at the bottom of the email that will take you to various sites partnering to help aid those truly in need.

We are accepting donations of bottled water, non-perishable foods, batteries, and black contractor bags to help aid the relief effort. Please drop them off at the Parish Center or the WelcomeCenter-Bookstore.

Thank you, and God Bless.

Monday, November 12th: 7 pm

"Loss" by definition is to be without or to be deprived of someone or something we have had in our past. Loss can be by death, divorce, breakup, miscarriage, or stillbirth. Relationship, disappointments, work and career, personal betrayals, chronic or sudden health and medical issues...are also some examples. Abuse and neglect in adulthood or childhood can also add to unfulfilling lifetime patterns and behaviors.

This seminar will address them all and guide you in working through these life-altering grief and loss experiences. Please join Rita Morgan, a specialist in grief therapy, here at St. Paul's on Monday, November 12th, at 7:00PM, where she will teach you how to help yourself. This seminar is FREE. To register, please email Rita Morgan at rxtherapy@gmail.com or call 212-579-1000.

Great Catholic Fiction
The End of the Affair by Graham Greene
Tuesday, November 20th: 7 - 9 pm
Parish Center

In this classic, Catholic author Graham Greene tells a story of love and hate. The novel examines the obsessions, jealousy and discernments within the relationships between the characters. "This is a record of hate far more than of love," writes Maurice Bendrix in the opening passages of The End of the Affair, and it is a strange hate indeed that compels him to set down the retrospective account of his adulterous affair with Sarah Miles—a hate bred of a passion that ultimately lost out to God.
